NO FOREIGN ATTACHES

Will Be Examined by Judges of the Dreyfus Courtmartial.

THE CLOSING ARGUMENTS.

Counsel Begin Speeches in Summing Up Evidence and It Is Expected That a Verdict Will Be Rendered Monday.

Rennes, Sept. 7.—At the opening of the fourth day of the fifth week of the second trial by courtmartial of 'Captain Alfred Dreyfus, of the artillery, charged with treason, M. Labori, leading counsel for the defense, announced that he had received a semi-official intimation that Colonel Schwartzkoppen, the former German military attaché at Paris, and Major Panizzardi, the former Italian attaché at Paris would be unable to appear personally before the court.

Counsel, therefore, proposed that a rogatory commission should be telegraphed to receive the deposition. The court declared itself incompetent to grant M. Labori's application.

M. Labori then drew up a formal application that Colonel Schwartzkoppen and Major Panizzardi be cited as witnesses and that seven questions be telegraphed to them to which they were to reply under oath.

The first question was to be if they had ever received the documents mentioned in the bordereau. The former attaches would be asked further if they had received the firing manual, when they had received it and from whom; whether either of them sent Esterhazy the petit bleu, a copy of which was to be telegraphed and finally if they ever directly or indirectly had any relations with Dreyfus.

The court deliberated for a quarter of an hour and on returning to the president, Colonel Jouaust read its decision, declaring it incompetent to M. Labori's application.

Major Carrière at 10:30 a. m. began his speech, closing the case for the prosecution. All the generals and other officers who were seated in the witness chairs rose and left the courtroom just before the government commissary's speech according to orders of the minister of war to leave Rennes within two hours after the pleading had begun. There was an interesting scene in the courtyard of the Lycee where the officers took leave of each other.

M. Demange, counsel for the defense, will probably occupy the whole of Friday with his speech for the defense, and M. Labori will speak on Saturday.

The verdict will be rendered Monday because the police authorities are opposed to the announcement of the verdict on Saturday, if it were possible to do so, on the ground that it would be likely to lead to trouble on Sunday.

After M. Labori had submitted his application for the dispatch of a rogatory commission to receive the depositions of Colonel Schwartzkoppen and Major Panizzardi, the chief of detectives, M. Cochefort, deposed favorably regarding the attitude of Dreyfus, when Colonel Du Paty de Clam dictated the bordereau to him.

The witness said Dreyfus only appeared to be troubled afterward when Du Paty de Clam questioned him. M. Cochefort referred to the revolver found on a table near the desk at which Dreyfus was then seated and he recounted how the prisoner on perceiving it cried: "I will not kill myself; I will live to establish my innocence."

Freystaetter Scored.

General Mercier afterwards came to the bar and said he felt the deposition of Captain Freystaetter was bound to have produced considerable impression on the minds of the judges. He spoke of the attacks made on him (Mercier) since the captain had testified, saying the Dreyfusard press had been calling him a false witness, etc.

General Mercier brought up two bad points in Captain Freystaetter's career. While in Madagascar he was guilty of an act of disobedience to his chief and he also executed 30 natives.

The general added that he firmly believed Freystaetter was a brave man, but he thought the two acts referred to showed he could not be entirely trusted.

He asked the judges not to allow the captain's evidence to shake their confidence in his own deposition, but to lend him (Mercier) the same credence as though the Freystaetter incident had never occurred. The court then retired to deliberate on M. Labori's application. Every one in court stood up when the judges returned.

The evidence of Colonel Schwartzkoppen and Major Panizzardi with regard to their relations with Dreyfus was excluded by the judges.

The refusal of Colonel Jouaust seemed inexplicable because it appeared to be his duty to receive all evidence directly bearing on the case and more especially the evidence of the two attaches, the refusal of whose evidence is equivalent to a slight on their respective countries.

That Colonel Jouaust's decision means the condemnation of Dreyfus, was the unanimous opinion of the anti-Dreyfusards and it was also the opinion of a majority of the Dreyfusards, whose last hope is that Colonel Jouaust only dared to refuse to take the evidence of Colonel Schwartzkoppen and Major Panizzardi because the court had already made up its mind to acquit the prisoner.

CLOSING SESSION

of the National Association of Bankers at Cleveland.

Cleveland, Sept. 7.—The closing session of the American Bankers' association was opened with prayer by Rev. Paul F. Sutphen. "The Possibilities of Banking Co-operation Under a Uniform System of Credit Departments and Standardized Property Statement" was the title of an interesting paper read by James G. Cannon, v. president of the Fourth National bank of New York.

The resolution offered by Mr. Cannon in regard to a credit information bureau was unanimously adopted.

Colonel Myron T. Herrick, president of the Society of Savings of this city, was the next speaker, his subject being: "The Effect of Banks on the People's Progress."

"How Can the United States Become the Clearing House of the World?" was the next, discussed by William R. Trigg, president of the William R. Trigg company shipbuilders, of Richmond, Va.

Mr. Trigg was followed by General Alfred C. Baines of New York, who discussed the same subject at length.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as recommended by the committee. At the conclusion of the election President Russell was presented with a loving cup by the members of the executive council for which he returned thanks in a brief speech.

Spy For Ottoman Empire.

Cincinnati, Sept. 7.—A. F. Dahronge, who claims to be a representative of the Turkish government, was arraigned in court on the charge of renting typewriters and selling them, while claiming to be the Syrian here, Dahronge has quarreled with the local Syrian colony and the Ottoman consul general at Washington is expected here to settle the case. Since the arrest of Dahronge the police have discovered letters and telegrams showing that Dahronge was doing a landoffice business in shipping goods. The police do not state what they found in the rooms of Dahronge, but they indicate that the prisoner is acting as a spy for the Ottoman government with his efforts directed against some secret society in New York.

Another Riot.

Cleveland, Sept. 7.—A street railroad strike riot occurred in South Brooklyn. Strike sympathizers hurled stones and clubs at a car and hit the crew. Another car soon appeared and it was also derailed and bombarded. A force of street railroad men were armed and sent to the rescue. When the reinforcements arrived they began to shoot their revolvers into the air, and the crowd broke and ran. It is reported that three of the rioters were wounded.

The insurgents have issued a call upon property owners in the interior to supply gratis the insurgent army carts, horses and cattle.

REPORT ON PENSIONS.

Full Text of Resolutions Adopted by National Encampment.

NEW COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

After Judge Leo Rassieur Had Withdrawn His Name as a Candidate, Shaw Was Selected by Acclamation.

Philadelphia, Sept. 7.—Shortly after the opening of the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic Judge Leo Rassieur of St. Louis, Mo., withdrew his name as a candidate for the office of commander-in-chief.

Judge Rassieur in a speech that aroused unbounded enthusiasm among the delegates, declined to oppose Colonel Albert D. Shaw of Watertown, N. Y., and requested that the vote of the encampment be given to Colonel Shaw. Acting on the suggestion of Judge Rassieur, the encampment elected Colonel Shaw by acclamation.

The encampment was called to order by Commander-in-chief W. C. Johnson and almost immediately the candidates proceeded to nominate candidates for the various offices.

After Colonel Shaw's election the delegates proceeded to make nominations for the office of senior vice commander and the name of Irving Robbins, of Indiana, was presented.

At this point the business of the encampment was interrupted by the arrival of delegations representing the Women's Relief Corps, Army Nurses and Sons of Veterans and a brief reception was held.

Irving Robbins of Indianapolis was elected senior vice commander-in-chief and M. Minton of Louisville, Ky., was chosen junior vice commander. William H. Baker of Lynn, Mass., was elected surgeon general. Jacob L. Grimm of Maryland was elected chaplain in chief.

Report on Pensions.

The report of the pensions committee which was re-committed with instructions to the committee to embody therein the desires of the encampment relative to the pension laws was again presented. The report was accompanied by resolutions and the encampment at once adopted them unanimously. They were as follows: "Your committee on pensions respectfully presents this supplemental report pursuant to the instructions of the encampment.

"We respectfully direct attention to section 471 of the Revised Statutes of the United States which reads as follows: 'The commissioner of pensions shall perform under the direction of the secretary of the interior such duties in the execution of pension and bounty laws as may be prescribed by the president.'"

"Resolved, That this encampment respectfully represents to the president its earnest conviction that rule 225 now in practical effect in the adjudication of claims for pensions under section 24 of the act of June 27, 1890, in the pension bureau, works grave injustice to worthy ex-soldiers and ex-sailors, and we express the hope that you will find it consistent with your duties as an executive officer to abrogate this rule and re-establish the principle as defined in rule 164. Under the operation of rule 164, formulated and put into effect soon after the passage of this act, unquestionably responsive to public sentiment and based upon sound legal propositions in a word, the simple impression of the letter and spirit of the law, 400,000 names were added to the pension roll of the republic and to which no objection was heard for years after its promulgation."

"Resolved, That this encampment respectfully represents that the practice in the pension bureau in barring widow claimants who have an income of $96 a year, is not warranted by the terms of the law and we warmly endorse the recommendation of the commissioners of pensions to successive secretaries of the interior that the limitation be increased to $250 a year."

"Resolved, That the commander-in-chief appoint a committee of five comrades to present to the president a certified copy of the action of this national encampment with an expression of our earnest desire for justice only to our disabled comrades and the widows and orphans of our dead under the letter and spirit of the law."

"Resolved, That this committee is hereby authorized and directed in the event that it is determined that relief may not be accorded by the administrative officers of the government to present to congress a request for the amendment of the law in such form as to make certain the true intent of the statute as we believe it can be construed as herein presented."

The report was signed by R. B.

Brown, J. W. Burst, John Palmer and Charles Clark Adams. The committee, as suggested in the report was appointed, consisting of the four signers of the report, together with General Daniel E. Sickles of New York.

INSURGENTS REPULSED.

Skirmish Between Americans and Filipinos Near San Rafael.

Manilla, Sept. 7.—Captain Butler, with three companies of the Third Infantry, a detachment of cavalry and one gun, while on a reconnaissance met a body of insurgents at San Rafael. The Americans scattered the enemy and captured seven prisoners, five rifles and 300 rounds of ammunition. They all destroyed the rice stored in seven warehouses. The Filipino warriors are supposed to belong to the command of General Pio del Pilar, who, with his main force, retreated to the north. The reconnaissance will be continued, following the enemy towards Maasin.

The United States Newport will convey to the United States the last company of the signal corps volunteers, the Nevada cavalry and various discharged soldiers.

Nightly Demonstrations.

Manilla, Sept. 7.—Small detachments of Filipinos make demonstrations nightly around Imus, firing volleys upon the American outposts. The Americans have thus far not replied except on Tuesday night when the two companies of the Fourth Infantry sallied and fired two volleys in the direction of the disturbers, who disappeared immediately. The secret service has learned that Aguinaldo has preferred charges against the general commanding in the Cavite province for Imus. The Americans treat the Filipinos more like fractious children than enemies.

A Notable Wedding.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 7.—At noon at the Episcopal cathedral Bishop Burton officiating, Arthur Joy Draper of Hopedale, Mass., third son of General William F. Draper, United States ambassador to Italy, and Miss Lily Duncan Vorhels, daughter of Charles H. Vorhels, banker and capitalist of this city, were married. After the bridal trip the couple will live in Cambridge, Mass., where the groom is a student in Harvard law school. General Draper married Miss Preston in this city 10 years ago and George Otis Draper, his second son, married an aunt of the bride about eight years ago. Among the gifts was General Draper's check for $5,000.

Benefits of Annexation.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 7.—Prince David Wawanakot, of Honolulu, who is on his way to Washington to visit his aunt, ex-Queen Liliuokalani, said: "Annexation is a decided success. Of course from a sentimental view the native Hawaiian feels like a man without a country just now, but that feeling will wear away. We want the president to appoint our governor and his cabinet and let the people elect their legislature. When this is done there will be no cause for complaint. Annexation has done great things for the Hawaiian Islands. The country never was so prosperous before."

Yellow Fever Reports.

Washington, Sept. 7.—Telegrams to the surgeon general of the marine hospital from Surgeon General Carter, now at Key West, state that the American physicians reported 64 cases of yellow fever at that point. He estimated that the Cuban physicians were in attendance upon from one-third to one-half as many more cases, but as no report had been made by them it was impossible to give accurate figures. Dr. Carter expressed the opinion that Dr. McLanahan of the navy department who is ill with fever, will recover.

Loyal Home Workers.

Philadelphia, Sept. 7.—The national convention of the Loyal Home Workers, an auxiliary branch of the Grand Army of the Republic, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Amos L. Seaman, St. Louis, president; A. M. Conklin, Mulberry, O., senior vice president; Frank McMurray, Canton, O., chaplain; Kate B. Sherwood, Canton, O., counsellor; E. C. Close, Fort Wayne, secretary; M. Hargrove, Brown Mills, N. J., treasurer.

By Rail and Water.

St. Louis, Sept. 7.—It is announced that on Sept. 13 the Hollander line will inaugurate its service between New York and St. Louis. The steamship Catania will on that day sail from New York to Mobile, whence the Mobile and Ohio railroad will be used to St. Louis. The Catania is a steamship of 3,500 tons and one of three which will be used in this service until it has been fully inaugurated.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—The condition of Attorney General George B. Peters of Tennessee, injured here by a fall, was much improved and the hospital authorities declared that he would live.

REQUEST OF THE BOERS

For an Explanation as to Meaning of of Troops on the Frontier.

REGARDED AS A DEFIANCE.

Will the Cabinet Council at London Afford Speedy Relief or Will the Tension Continue For Another Week?

London, Sept. 7.—If the Transvaal situation has changed at all it is for the worse.

The Boer request for an explanation as to the massing of British troops on the frontier of the Transvaal has an ominous note of irritation and impatience, which at such a critical stage can scarcely be interpreted as anything but a defiance. Both here and in Cape Colony the tension and the arming continue.

Whether the cabinet council will afford immediate relief is still a question of great doubt. The more conservative believe the cabinet will only put a time limit upon the negotiations and the interim will only be a repetition of the anxious times which have marked the two weeks. Cape Town advices say the Afrikaners regarded the latest Boer reply as evasive while others regard it as evasive to entangle the two governments in further negotiations. The average opinion of the British press is inclined to regard it as the straw which would break the back of the most long suffering diplomatic camel.

An Ultimatum Expected.

The Morning Post makes a special display from Pietermaritzburg, capital of Natal, saying that an ultimatum would be forwarded to the Boers. This is scarcely credible, however, as every well informed source here believes that the cabinet will decide upon the advisability of an ultimatum.

The same correspondent adds that the Boers have received, or will receive, a dispatch from Sir Alfred Milner, the governor of Cape Colony and British high commissioner of South Africa, demanding the release of Mr. Pakeman, the editor of the Transvaal Leader, who was arrested Sept. 2 on the charge of high treason.

Continuing, the correspondent says 800 Boers have left Pretoria for Standerton and declares that the Pietermaritzburg troops are ready to march at two hours' notice.

The London edition of the Standard and Digger News, the official Boer organ, said:

"We can state that the diplomatic correspondence between the Transvaal and the colonial office is of a reassuring nature and that the dispute has now narrowed to an issue which should make a settlement possible and even speedy. The Transvaal is prepared for all eventualities, but remains hopeful for a peaceful settlement."

Nothing which can be learned here tends to confirm the foregoing statement and owing to the pro-Boer source from which it emanated it is regarded with suspicion.

Wanted No Burdens.

Manchester, England, Sept. 7.—The Guardian's special correspondent at Pretoria, well known writer on social economics, cables to his paper an interview he has had with President Kruger of the Transvaal republic. He quotes him as saying he had always sought to induce foreigners in the Transvaal to undertake citizenship, but they had tried to get its privileges without accepting its burdens. Continuing, President Kruger said: "In 1881, when numbers could have taken burghership they chose to register as British subjects. Protesting in 1895 against being drafted for the Kaffir war, Sir Henry Loch, who was governor of Cape Colony, represented that they did not wish to become burghers and so the Raad exempted them."

Boers Demand an Explanation.

Pretoria, Sept. 7.—At the desire of the Transvaal government there has been transmitted through Mr. Green, the British diplomatic agent here, to Sir Alfred Milner, the British high commissioner of South Africa, an inquiry as to whether an explanation would be given in regard to the mobilization of British troops on the Transvaal frontier.

Artillery Called Out.

Bloemfontein, Orange Free State, Sept. 7.—It is understood that all the Transvaal artillery has been called out and that the burghers have been notified to be ready. The latest reply of the Transvaal to Great Britain is regarded as marking the disappearance of the last hope of peace.

John R. McLean's expenses in securing the nomination for governor, as sworn to in his statement to the secretary of state are $500.

THE SCHOOLS.

The public schools open this year under highly favorable conditions. The teachers have made good use of the vacation, and return to their duties not only with improved health, but with renewed zeal and increased familiarity with modern scholastic methods. The attendance of pupils is larger than usual, even in the colored schools.

The Board of Education, meantime, has not been idle. Everything has been done to make the school-rooms airy, comfortable and attractive, and no effort will be spared hereafter, as none has been spared in the recent past, to remove the opprobrium that rests upon the public schools as distributors of disease. Careful disinfection after the most approved methods is now rigorously enforced by the Health Committee of the board, and within the past ten days or two weeks every school-room has been thoroughly scrubbed with antiseptic washes and disinfected with formaldehyde gas.

Teachers, as heretofore, are expected to report at once upon all suspicious cases and parents are urged to continue the practice of hygienic measures of prevention at home. Every child, for example, should be taught to gargle or spray its throat as regularly as it cleanses its teeth. The throat is a prolific breeder of bacteria.

Our misguided friends who are supporting the Brown movement would purify politics by continuing the State under Republican rule, although in their platform they condemned "the present State administration because of its well-known mismanagement and extravagance in office." They would punish machine politics by electing Taylor, who was nominated by one of the most compact machines known in politics.—Georgetown Times.

There are none so blind as those who won't see. If you want to find an inconsistent lot of people look at Brown and his followers.

The Trusts in Kentucky Politics.

(Burlington Recorder.)
 Mr. Doerhoefer, of Louisville, the Kentucky representative of the American Tobacco Trust, is a member of the State Executive Committee of the anti-Goebel Democrats. How does a crowd who believes in putting a member of one of the greatest trusts in the land in the lead in their organization suit the Democrats of this county? Think about this. Only a few months since farmers were holding meetings in the State with a view to downing the trust that Mr. Doerhoefer represents in Kentucky, and what these same farmers will do next November for these politicians that Mr. Doerhoefer is representing in this campaign will be a plenty.

Figures Showing What the Chinn Law Would Save the People.

This Democratic Bill Would Now be in Effect Had Gov. Bradley Not Vetoesed It.

(Glasgow News.)

In view of the fact that this is the season of the year when the common schools of the county are beginning the fall term, and parents and guardians are buying new books for their children and wards, now is a good time for them to make a practical study of the reform proposed in the Chinn school book bill, which has been endorsed by the Democratic State platform and condemned by the Republican State platform.

This bill was passed by the Democrats of both branches of the last Legislature, and would be a law to day but for the veto of Governor Bradley. It is therefore no fault of the Democrats of Kentucky that it is not the law now, but it will be the law next year just as certainly as Goebel is elected Governor, and that is almost a foregone conclusion; because when the people of Kentucky have made themselves thoroughly familiar with the reforms proposed by the Democratic State platform they will rally to the standard of the party advocating them, in such numbers as will sweep the Republicans off their feet and make the majority for Goebel so large and overwhelming that no attempt by the book trust to debauch members of the General Assembly will be worth trying.

The question of cheaper schoolbooks for the children of Kentucky is one that materially affects every man, woman or child in the Commonwealth, and the most surprising thing to us is that anybody—Democrat, Republican, Populist or Prohibitionist—should be opposed to any measure affording any relief whatever in that direction. We do not believe the rank and file of either party will be opposed to such a measure when they are familiar with the provisions of the bill, and before this campaign is over it will not be the fault of the Democrats if they are not familiar with the reforms in this direction advocated in the Democratic platform.

In the first place the Chinn bill provides that, within ten days after the bill becomes a law, the Governor shall appoint a commission of seven citizens of Kentucky who shall be chosen with special reference to their scholarly and business qualifications, one member to be chosen from each appellate district and not more than three of them belonging to the same political party. This commission shall be known as the "Kentucky School Commission." Their term of office shall be for four years, and their compensation shall be $5 per day and traveling expenses while in the actual discharge of their duties. No session of the commission shall exceed twenty days at one time. As soon as the commission shall have been selected the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall advertise for bids from all reliable publishing houses in the United States for furnishing books for the schools of the State for a term of five years, each bid to be accompanied with a sample of the book or books proposed to be furnished and a deposit of $500 with the Auditor for damages for failure to enter into a contract with the State if their bid is accepted. The bids shall state the kind and price of books to be furnished; the price at which all books now in use in the public schools of the State are to be taken in exchange for new books, and the price at which books will be mailed to purchasers. Before this contract is entered into the publishing house shall file with the Secretary of State a bond for $10,000 for the faithful performance of the contract.

The bill then fixes the highest price which the commission shall pay for books to be sold at retail. These prices, as compared with the prices now being paid for books of the same class, are as follows:

child in the State of Kentucky, and amounts to hundreds of thousands of dollars. Take Barren County alone. There are in the public schools of this county, in round numbers, 8,000 children. A saving of $2.92 on each child means a saving of $23,360 to the patrons of the common schools of Barren County alone.

This one plank in the Democratic platform ought to be enough to insure the election of the State ticket by an overwhelming majority and we believe, when the people have been made thoroughly familiar with the questions at issue between the parties, they will give the ticket headed by Goebel the biggest majority received by a candidate since the war.

Program Now Ready—Brim Full of Liberal Premiums—Vaudeville and Other Performances at Night.

There are to be no pyrotechnics, grandiloquence or subterfuges used in advertising the Ohio Valley Carnival and Horse Show which has been announced to take place at the Mayesville Fair Grounds Sept. 21st, 22nd and 23rd.

The program, which is now ready for distribution and can be had of Mr. James W. Fitzgerald, is brim full of liberal premiums and chuck full of classes which ought to call out great competition, especially in a neighborhood sense.

The design of this festival is to have a fitting climax to a full season of harvest home fairs, vaudevilles and gatherings. This will embody the best features of all these and give men, women and children an opportunity to come together and enjoy the most pleasing sights he, she or they may choose.

The falling of night's shadows will not end the amusements for the track and stage are to be brightly lighted and while harmonies grand from Mayesville's splendid reed and brass band float out, making the scene enchantingly beautiful and delightful real, the vaudeville artists will act and the fair features will be carried on.

THIEVES AT WORK.

Mr. T. Y. Nesbitt's Store Entered Wednesday Night and a Lot of Goods Stolen.

Mr. T. Y. Nesbitt's dry good store, corner of Second and Sutton, was entered by thieves some time Wednesday night, who carried away about $30 worth of men's shirts and underwear and women's underwear and hose.

The thieves were very bold, as one of them climbed up on the awning frame and entered through a second story front window. The side door at the rear was then opened.

The affair was kept quiet yesterday in hopes of catching the thieves, but no clue has yet been obtained.

In addition to the goods the thieves secured about one hundred pennies and some postage and revenue stamps. They tried the safe, but didn't get it open.

Bracken in Line.

We are glad to say that old Bracken is in line and that there is not a single Gold Democrat in the county but that will support heartily the candidacy of Wm. Goebel. Besides, we have a number of Republicans who are honest in their opposition to trusts, and who feel that most of the noise being made, against Goebel is by trusts and corporations, and who will vote as they talk—for Goebel. His majority in Bracken will be the largest in years.

Superior and Kentucky DISC DRILLS

Are King and Queen of all Drills. Their superiority over all competitors are too well known to need comment; suffice it to say that we placed over sixty of these Drills the past season and have yet the first complaint from a single purchaser. On the other hand every one who used them stand ready and willing to give their testimonial as to the superior work done by them, and their unanimous verdict is if you expect to purchase a Drill this season, get either the

SUPERIOR OR KENTUCKY

and no other. Do not delay placing your orders and there will be no disappointments, as is the case each season when we are forced to resort to the river and express, which makes an additional expense. Every Drill is warranted to be just as represented. Do not allow yourself to be talked into buying some inferior Drill for the sake of saving a few dollars. Remember the cheapest is not the best, but the best is always the cheapest. Respectfully,
